EXPLORE THE UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD – OPENING TIMES

THE TELEPHONE AREA CODE FOR OXFORD IS 01865

The information given in this leaflet is intended for guidance only. Charges are subject to change. Opening times are subject to University functions, examinations, bank holidays, conferences, etc. Please check with the place you wish to visit in advance.

Groups should check if they need to book in advance.

We want you to enjoy your visit, but please remember that our colleges and halls are places of residence, work and study, and you are asked not to enter staircases, rooms and areas marked as private. All visitors should report to the Lodge on arrival. Dogs, except assistance dogs, are not allowed in colleges and halls.

Oxford is a beautiful city of stunning architecture, history and culture. You'll find ancient and modern colleges, fascinating museums and galleries, and plenty of parks, gardens and green spaces in which to relax. Plus, the city centre is small enough to cover on foot, and only a few minutes' walk from the main rail and coach stations. Information on how to get to Oxford is available here:

www.ox.ac.uk/visitors/visiting-oxford/how-get-oxford

Disabled Access

Many of our buildings are very old. We are making reasonable adjustments wherever possible to improve accessibility. The Access Guide at www.accessguide.ox.ac.uk provides information about accessibility, but to make the most of your visit we suggest you contact individual locations directly.
